

Welcome to the January Program
January 11, 2014, 3pm-5 pm

Title: Working with Asia: Negotiation and Communication Skills

Presenters: Mr. Hirota Koatsu (Li Guang Da)

Date & Time: Saturday, January 11th, 2014 3 pm-5 pm

Venue: Rikkyo University, Ikebukuro Campus 3-34-1 Nishi-Ikebukuro, Toshima-ku, Building 10, Room 301

Language: Japanese & English

Fee: Members Free; non-members 1,000 yen; Non-member students: undergrads free; postgrads 1,000 yen.

Pre-registration is encouraged to insure your place: programs@sietar-japan.org

*We will hold a New Year party at 6 pm in a nearby restaurant, 夜来香. Fee: 3000yen
(all-you-can-drink-and-eat). <http://r.gnavi.co.jp/a302700/>

If you would like to join us, please mention that when you register for the workshop. Party only participants welcome!

Program Abstract

Geared mainly to corporate trainers, or professors teaching communication skills, this program will introduce negotiation and communication skills for the workplace, whether with an external institute, or internal division. The focus countries will be mainly China, Indonesia, Cambodia and Thailand.

Presenter

Mr. Hirota Koatsu (Li Guang Da)

Overseas Chinese, born in Kobe (when 35 years old, Japanese Nationality permitted) Now working at Oji Management Office Corporation (formerly Oji Paper). SIETAR Japan Newsletter Co-Director, Japanese Language Editor, Member of The Japan India Association, Japan Indonesia Association. Specialization in Marketing and Business Development. Now responsible for corporate planning in Overseas M&A (Merger and Acquisition) or Joint Ventures with local companies.

DIRECTIONS

Rikkyo University can be accessed from the west exit of Ikebukuro Station. Walk straight on Kanamae-cho Street and turn left onto Rikkyo Street, just past the Marui Department Store. Building 10 is the second building on the right. It is about a 10 minute walk from Ikebukuro Station. <http://english.rikkyo.ac.jp/access/pmap/ikebukuro.html>

www.sietar-japan.org <http://www.rikkyo.ac.jp/access/pmap/ikebukuro.html>